“ David was my boss at Clarcor for many years. He treated me extremely well which motivated me to work even harder for him and our company.
We both played competitive softball so we always had something to talk about. Bringing up Prime Time softball stories was one of his favorite topics of discussion.
He loved his kids as he always was talking about them!!!
Rest in peace David! Thanks for being apart of my work family and being a good friend during some trying times! You were a darn good person!!!!
