

Charles F. Evans Jr.

October 14, 2010

Charles F. Evans, Jr. 72, passed away October 14, 2010 at his residence. He was the former President of Turn-Act & Enterprise Sales and Planning Inc. He was an inventor and holder of many patents and an avid outdoors man. He is survived by his wife, Sue Clayton- Evans; children, William B. Evans (Sharon), Tim R. Evans, Charles F. Evans, III (Terry), Laura Evans Brown, Laura Thornhill (Sean) and Stuart Clayton (Karlin). Also, survived by five grandchildren, Jennifer Black (Delbert), Lauren Evans, Ben Berry, Maggie Berry and Emily Brown, and three great-grandchildren. Funeral services 11 AM, Monday at Owen Funeral Home – Jeffersontown, 9318 Taylorsville Rd. Visitation Noon – 8 PM, Sunday. Burial Resthaven Cemetery. Expression of sympathy made to The American Lung Association or Hosparus Online condolence www.OwenFuneralHome.com

Tribute Wall

TR

“ My condolences to the Evans family. I just learned of Charlie's passing today as I was out of town. 72 is just too young in my eyes. Charlie was a great host to many of the Turn-Act Distributors and I will miss him.

Tom Rhoads - June 28, 2018 at 04:06 PM

PB

“ Please accept our deepest symapathies for the loss of a great man. Charlie provided opportunities for many people and I am personally grateful for the opportunity he gave me working for Turn-Act. I know he will be missed by everyone who knew him.

Paul & Jenny Ballinger

Paul & Jenny Ballinger - June 28, 2018 at 04:06 PM

MG

“ sue, sorry to read about Charles..you must have taken good care of him these past years..keep in touch and call so we can get together. fondly, Mame

mary garner - June 28, 2018 at 04:06 PM

CE

“ God Bless Charlie and his family. You were a great man, boss, and sportsman. We will miss you.

Curtis Eicher - June 28, 2018 at 04:06 PM