“ It always sounded strange to call you lil charlie. You were always so much bigger then others lol. Even as an adult you had the biggest heart. Just so nice and kind. That smile melted my heart on many days.

Our posts back and forth on Facebook was so entertaining and hilarious. A Kentucky fan whom I simply adored. I'm going to miss everything about you my nephew by choice.

I was so blessed to call you that not really family but family. Tears flow sometimes without a way to stop and I can hear you clearly saying NO.

Always seeing the good in everything and everyone. Lord if I can bottle some of that up I'd have the answer to saving this city.

May you rest my luv in eternal peace and know you made a difference here in this earth that will forever be appreciated.

I love you

“ He was honestly the best dad I could've ever asked for, anything that we could've possibly wanted he made sure we had it. No matter how bad he was feeling if I was sick he was there to take care of me and he'd always pick us up when we're down. Everything he did he would do it with his all and no one could even come close to being half the man that he was. Not a day will go by that I won't love and miss him he was my world.
