“ I'll start off by saying I've had the pleasure of cutting Charles hair for the last 4 years at Great Clips on Dixie hwy. He was my absolute favorite. Today is a sad day. I had been thinking about Charles a lot the last few days and that I hadn't seen him. My husband Brandon and I had talked about "my Charles" so often we were going to invite him to dinner to Cracker Barrel so all his 'girlfriends' would be in one place. My receptionist checked for me this morning (6/24) and his last haircut was April 23rd. I just found out today Charles passed. I'm not sure I ever cried so hard over losing a client. Losing your favorite client is one of the most heartbreaking things to go through, but finding out after the fact is even harder. I didn't get to come say goodbye or tell you, his family, how wonderful he was and how lucky you were to have him. I will never get to hug my sweet little Charles again. He made my day better every single time he walked in here. He brought me cinnamon candy for Valentine's Day and after Easter when I started my wegovy shots he brought me so much chocolate, because he told me I didn't need to lose weight because I was built perfectly. He was the best. I will miss him so much.
