

Charles Clark Harris

May 23, 2010

Charles Clark Harris, 75 of Jeffersontown passed away Sunday at Baptist Hospital East. He was a native of Baxter, KY, a retired cable repair technician for South Central Bell where he worked for 40 years, a member of Walnut Street Baptist Church, The Telephone Pioneers of America, a Kentucky Colonel, he graduated from Eastern High School Class of '54 and as a child he was a resident of Spring Meadows Children Home. He was preceded in death by his wife, Nancy Aaron Harris. He is survived by his son, Kevin C. Harris (Dawn); daughter, Karen Mingis (Steve); brothers, James , Gary , and Ronald Harris (Karen) who took special care of him; sister, Beulah Sailing, his beloved granddaughter, Lena Mingis and a special friend, Carolyn D'Antonio. Funeral service will be held 11 am, Thursday at Owen Funeral Home – Jeffersontown, 9318 Taylorsville Rd with burial in Russell Springs Cemetery. Visitation 2-8 pm, Wednesday. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society and his church.

Tribute Wall

BM

“ *I knew Charles from the telephone company and my husband and I both knew him from the Walnut Street Choir. He had a beautiful singing voice, and shared it with many people.
We are so sorry for your loss.
Brenda and Richard Magers*

Brenda & Richard Magers - June 28, 2018 at 04:15 PM