“ The last time I saw Charlie was 8 years ago this month (August). he attended my 80th Birthday Party. He slipped around and shyly placed an envelope in my hand and closed my hand on it. It was a church offering envelope and written on it was "Happy Birthday, Willa, Love, Charlie". Inside the envelope was a twenty dollar bill and a five. I was so touched - a very personal birthday present from my good friend of many years. I am sure those who brought him had no idea he had prepared that gift for me. I put the envelope to save in one of my most prized possessions - a White Baptist Hymnal that he and Susie gave me years ago for my birthday. Two special people! When I told my daughter, Kay, about his passing, she said, "Such a sweet and caring man." I totally agree that Charlie was one of the sweetest natured and kindest and most honorable man that I have ever known. Enjoy being again with Susie, your brothers and your parents but most of all your new eternal life in the presence of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
