“ To the Whitworth family,

My wife and I would like to offer our condolences on the death of Charles.

Charles and my parents, Delbert and Alice, attended church together for many years until the death of my father in 2009. Even after that, Charles would visit my mother and took her to church with him a couple of times as she didn't drive. He would also call and check on her often.

Charles was a very special, kind man and my family always appreciated the friendship he offered my mother after dad passed away.

Having now lost both parents, I understand your pain but know they are all rejoicing in heaven.
