“ Dear Ron, I was out of town last week and am just catching up on newspapers. I don't know what to say, your parents were such a part of my childhood. I loved them both as if they were my own parents. If you read this, I would love to talk to you. Please email me. Love, Allison

“ Dear Ron,

Our sincere condolences on your father's passing. I remember him very well as a wonderful, kind man, with a southern gentleman hospitality. Both your parents and grandma were extremely gracious when Tanta and I visited. We will be thinking of you at this time of sadness. With our sincere thoughts and prayers, Anne and John.
