“ Leo,
You will be missed and I want to thank you for serving our great Nation in the Korean War.
I hope the Motor Corps gives you a big escort on the last ride...you deserve one.
Thanks for being my brother and friend....

“ So sorry to hear about Lee (as I knew him). Last saw him at the Kirkpatrick reunion 2013. Mom was Dorothy May (Kirkpatrick) Lile. Remember Lee as always having a story to tell about things that happened in his life. He will be missed. Again, my condolences.
Cousin Jim.

“ Sorry to learn of Leo's passing. He always had a story and made me laugh. Enjoyed riding with him and remember stopping by to see him in 1999 in Glasgow, KY after wrecking his motorcycle going to the SESA in Chattanooga TN. Was appreciative that I had stopped and visited him. Could not believe that at the time I had had my hips replaced 9 weeks before and was on my bike.
Farewell my friend.
