“ Dear Sweet Nana, oh how you will be missed by your family and friends who loved you so very much. We knew the loss of you here would cut us deeply but we would be selfish to expect the Lord to let you stay here in a broken down, bed ridden body. We rejoice for your new life in Heaven. A place you dreamt of spending eternal life. You always were checking on your family and now you have the best view of us all any time you want. I look forward to our reunion when it's my time but until then, you'll be living on in my heart.

Love Always, Stephanie

“ She was my mother and my best friend. I can't imagine doing life without you. I am believing in a gracious God that keeps all of his promises that I will be reunited with her, and we will never be apart again. My heart is so broken but I know God lifted you out of that bed and you live on with dad and all of your family already there. This is not goodbye mom, I will see you again, until then I love you more than you will ever know.

“ My Nana was an angel. I never once saw her get angry or be mean to anyone. She loved with her whole heart and cared deeply for her family. She would tear up every time we left after a visit to get house. I am blessed beyond measure to have been able to call her Nana. Thank you for setting an example for your family which will be passed down for generations to come. Love always. Chris

Love these pictures Chris. My sweet Aunt Jean adored her family and always had a loving comment to make when speaking of her beloved grandchildren. Chris you are blessed for sure. You are right your Nana was truly an angel.
