

Connie Lynn (Drake) Faust

February 14, 1955 - March 29, 2026

Connie Lynn (Drake) Faust, of Lebanon Junction, passed away on March 29, 2026. Though formally named Connie, she was known and loved by all as Lynn.

Lynn retired from Marcone Supply Company after many years of dedicated service. She was a passionate University of Louisville fan and never missed an opportunity to cheer on her team, especially when it meant playfully rooting against her beloved Faust family during rival games at family gatherings. Left to cherish her memory is the light of her life, her beautiful granddaughter, Teagan Faust, whom she lovingly raised and adored more than anything in this world.

She is also survived by her daughter, Andrea Faust; her bonus daughters, Jacqueline Faust and Victoria Faust; her grandchildren, Garrett, Kaylan, Sam, Brian, Angela, and Jordan, along with many great grandchildren.

Lynn was also blessed with dear friends who became like family, Dorie Smith and her late husband, Jerry Smith, who provided unwavering love and support to both Lynn and Teagan through the years. Dorie remains a cherished and important part of Teagan's life.

She is further survived by her brothers and sisters by marriage, Pat & Bill Rogers, Erick and Debbie Faust and Marlene Drake, as well as many nieces and nephews, including Jennifer, Wes, Terri, Julie, Todd, Lorie, Kelly, and Lina, along with many great nieces and nephews.

Lynn was preceded in death by her loving husband, Conrad Faust; her parents, William and Allison “Sunny” Drake; her brother, William Drake, Jr.; her in laws, Owen and Phoebe Faust; her sister and brother-in-law, Diann and Bud Kannapel; and her dear friend, Jerry Smith.

Lynn will be remembered for her strong spirit, her love of family, and the joy she brought to those around her. Her legacy lives on in the family she cherished so deeply.

Expressions of sympathy may be made in the form of donations to the Heuser Hearing Institute, whose care and support meant so much to Lynn and helped Teagan throughout the years.

“ 12 years or so ago I met Lynn at my job at Sam's. She would stop at the desk and talk to me. She found out about my sister with colon cancer and gave her name to an organization that gave wishes to patients with this disease. She was instrumental in helping my sister get her last wish to see our sister in Florida. I will never forget her doing this. Katie, my sister, was so happy that she got this trip. Before she passed our sister passed and then Katie passed 10 Mos later. I love you Lynn. I hope you and Katie meet in your new bodies. Prayers for the family especially Teagen.

Lynn was always my buddy at family gatherings! We were close in age, both diabetic, and had similar maladies. I was so glad when she and my brother married, because the he was truly happy-Lynn was exactly what he needed! As you can see in their pictures, they were content and happy! Have never seen him that happy!
I will miss you dearly, my Lynn and will truly miss our almost daily texts because of distance, and all the funny cat shenanigans!
Please give my sweet brother a big kiss, tell him how he's been missed, but so glad you're reunited. Till we meet again!
