“ Holly, I rest assured that you are in heaven being greeted by a pack of wagging tails. Your love of great dogs was a blessing to us and of course to our guys who spent time with you. I sent Cabo ahead to walk the path with you. You were always generous with your affection for our boys and it showed in how spoiled they were at your house. I remember calling to check on my dogs and you said you had just made them a chicken. Another time making them vegetables and giving them pumkin when they had stomach problems. That was Holly, her love for dogs, making the world better for them. We are all better for knowing Holly. Blessings, Dan B
