“ I've known Cindy since she was 12 yrs old. It was the worst news I've got in a very long time. I introduce Cindy and the father of their child TJ.. She had a whirlwind of a life, a mother who had no idea how to keep her out of harms way. She has faults, but at the same time she had a radiant light that showed through the hardship . We argued the last time we saw each other and I never got a chance to apologize for it . Cindy I'm sorry for the last time we spoke, I wish I could take it back and been a little bit better at being a friend. I will miss you and I hope you have the piece that you deserve. God bless. Troy and TJ my heart goes out to the both of you, let me know if there is anything I can do. I love you guys like family.

Cindy was deeply loved by me. She came into my life at about 6 1/2 and it was love. I tried very hard to help her in life . She went down a pathway I was unable to stop. After years of trying I gave up and walked away with a broken heart. I miss her deeply and the tears don't stop. I know Troy and TJ are feeling a great deal of pain like others that loved her to .
