It was an honor to have meet you . Thank you for opening your home , and heart to me for the past 16 years.

What else can one say for 16 years of friendship, secrets , love , hate ,time together during the good and the bad.

I'll never forget those days we go places , the times you let me do laundry at the house , the meals we broke bread and shared.

We've been through a heap together from the time your children were children til the time they had their own children.

I will always cherish and remember everything.

Your ok in my book.

And what a surprise and treat to have known you.

I know we had planned to go on an Alaska cruise on my 50th . I guess I'll have to find some one else to go with.

RIP my friend ,

Richard
