

David Lewis Allen Sr.

June 23, 1960 - March 19, 2020

David Lewis Allen, Sr, age 59 of Louisville, passed away on Thursday, March 19, 2020. David was born on June 23, 1960 to the late Edward and Edythe Allen. David was a truck driver. He got to travel and see many places. He was kind-hearted and a lover of people. He never knew a stranger. David could always make you laugh with his jokes and pranks. He was always thinking of others and never took credit for himself. Everyone that knew David loved him, he will be deeply missed.

David is survived by his companion of many years, Lisa Stark; children, David Allen, Jr. (Jessica), and Leeanne Allen (Bobby Puckett); step-children, Lindsey Stark, and Stephen Sheneman (Erika); brother, Ike Allen (Holly); sister, Kamala Allen; grandchildren, Lily and Logan Allen; Hannah, Dylan, and Tyler Puckett; and Austyn Sheneman.

Due to the current events surrounding the viral pandemic the Allen family will not have public services to respect the government guidelines and help reduce the risk of spreading the virus. We invite you to share pleasant memories of David on his tribute wall.

Expressions of sympathy to honor David's love of animals can be made to the Kentucky Humane Society (kyhumane.org) or the ASPCA (aspca.org/donate).

When I knew David, his nickname was 'Puggy' (for the knot between his eyebrows). This was back in the middle-to-late '70s.

We lived in super uptight and lily-white Georgetown Green in Charlottesville, VA. David was one of the rowdier kids in the neighborhood.

I thought they were cool and tagged along mostly. Some older folks made it a big deal, but it was just teenagers fooling around.

Bottom line, David was a good guy and a loyal friend. I hoped I'd see at this summer's AHS reunion. Unfortunately, it didn't happen.

So, even though we hadn't seen each other in forty-some years, please accept my sincere condolences.
