All the memories we sure made a lot. I remember how much your mom adored you, and your dad. He was a straight faced hoot. He asked us to show him our pants legs and as we started to pull em up he started laughing. He reminds me of you. Your momma... I remember her showing me her 25th anniversary gift was a nice clock from your dad. I remember her keeping that picture of us on that shelf for so many years. Great parents! I'm turning 60 real soon and I'm reminiscing. I wish you were here maybe we could travel and see some national parks drive hwy 101 west coast. My closest friend and oh how I adored you. I pray for your family. It takes time but I'm living proof it never goes away. Again love to all...

*He goes free of the earth.
The sun of his last day sets clear in the sweetness of his liberty.*

The earth recovers from his dying, the hallow of his life remaining in all his death leaves.

Radiances know him. Grown lighter than breath, he is set free in our remembering. Grown brighter than vision, he goes dark into the life of the hill that holds his peace.

*He's hidden among all that is,
and cannot be lost.*
