“ *Dear Glenda,
I was so very sorry to hear about David and wanted to express my condolences to you. My prayers and thoughts are with you. You were such a good Mother to David and having to deal with losing a child only God can help you through. Stay strong, as I know you are, and take comfort in your family and friends.
Your friend,
Brenda (Lichtenfels)*

“ My sympathies for your loss. I graduated with David at Trinity in 1990. I knew of him and remembered his handsome looks and bright smile. He was a Trinity man indeed. Peace and prayers.

“ To our precious Glenda and family, We are heartsick to hear of David's sudden passing. We don't know why such things happen, but its comforting to know his soul is at peace. We hope the family is comforted knowing his journey in peace and tranquil days now comforts him. The family is in our thoughts and prayers. Love you, Theda, DK, Brandon & Ashley
