“ When Gramps was alive, and I would spend the day with him, we would always go to McDonald’s. I would always have pancakes and sausage for breakfast. Then, we would go back to McDonald’s for lunch. I would always have a Filet-O-Fish.

“ Today through a mutual friend from Ingram and Associates, I learned that Dave passed away. I want to say how sorry I am for your loss and I want to let you know that Dave was one of the first people that ever believed in me. Simply put I wanted to say that he was MY FRIEND!!!! I would love the opportunity to tell someone in your family about my experience with Dave and how just knowing him changed the direction of my life. I am now President and CEO of my own company based on advise and him teaching me never to give up.. I can be reached at either 502-992-8681 my office or my Cell at 502-641-3559.

God Bless you all in your lose,

Perry

“Dad, I miss you. It has almost been a month since you left this world. I love you very much. Thank you for paying for my college tuition and expenses. Thank you for coming to Norfolk, VA for my graduation from graduate school. Thank you for helping me. Thank you for expending your energy on us instead of other things. Thank you for your heritage and stories of being of Irish descent. Thank you for your trips to UK to come see me while you were on the road doing business. Thank you for taking care of Brett when he was a baby. I loved the way he would rub your bald head. Thank you for paying for my wedding and sorry it did not work out. Thank you for your humor. I will always love you and miss you. Your youngest daughter, Bridgett

“Dear Betty and Family,
I am so sorry for your loss, Dave was a very caring, giving, and loving man. There is not a day to go by that I will not be thinking about him. He always had a smile on his face and a silly joke to tell. He was the most amazing man that I have ever met, I was lucky to have been his friend. May he rest in peace with our heavenly father. God bless you all <3

“ Dad, I love you very much. It was a gift to have known you. I will always cherish your sense of humor, your resilience, your love for your family, and your kind heart. You have always been selfless and very loving. You have accepted us as we are and loved us in spite of it. The time that you spent with Brett will never be forgotten. He loved you so much. He thought that you were very funny. You will be missed!!
