“ What a man David was I will always remember the fun times at Christian Heights untied Methodist in Hopkinsville. Vacation Bible schools to camp outs at the end of those weeks to seeing David running out the camper door hearing him yell my daddys name BARRY CLINE ! because of the firecrackers my dad lite at 6am the next morning to watching David's look on his face when the youth group shuffling there feet down the aisle with the offering plates in there hand knowing he is getting zipped yet again? My heart is saddened by the loss of yet another good man that touched many hearts. May he and my parents be having a good time seeing each other again. Send you all my Love HUGS and Prayers your way.
