“ Debbie we had been friends since childhood. I still remember playing on the ball fields at Marydale with you. I will miss our chats and I pray for your beautiful girls, that they will be surrounded by people to help them through this very difficult time.

“ My deepest sympathy and prayers go out to Debbie' s girls and family. I know Debbie will be in heaven and watch over those she loves. I pray for peace to her and you all as I mourn with you. I am both shocked & sad. I am glad we were able to talk, but I wish it had been more. She will be missed and I will always cherish the many years and memories that we were lucky to share. God Bless you til we meet again.

“ Despite how unfair this feels to me. I still have faith that God is in control and just had bigger purpose for Deborah . I'm just finding it very hard to like right now. She was such a loving mother and a feisty beautiful lady. May her family find comfort in knowing she is no longer suffering and they now have an angel watching over them.

“ I am in shock and my heart is breaking...I will miss Sweet Deborah so much. She was above all a marvelous mother whose life revolved around her two precious little girls. She was so smart, very strong, with a kind heart and a smile the lit up a room. I am an older (65)friend of Deb's...she was a good, true friend to me and I cherished her presence in my life. RIP my sweet friend.

“ Debbie was an amazing woman and I will miss her dearly. Life got in the way and we didn't get to see each other as much as I would have liked but she has a special place in my heart and I will always love her. I hope her daughters know what an amazing mother she was and her memory will live on forever in them.
