I just keep telling myself that you will always be with me and in my corner always...I love you so much mom....I will never tell you goodbye because I know you will never leave me...

“ omg baby girl, what am i gonna do without you???? you were the funny one, the one everybody loved, the one i always knew i could talk to. we could be cussing each other one minute, and laughing together the next. the one that showed everybody unconditional love. you weren't the youngest, but you were always the baby. i'm gonna miss you so very much. from you kicking linda's and my shins all the way to school, to always having to give your spoiled little but anything you wanted, and that didn't end after you were grown. what i wouldn't give, to have to give you your way just one last time. but you're with mama now, and she will take care of you. no more sickness, no more hospital, just heaven. i love you with all my heart and soul. rest easy with all those angels you love so well!, i love you deb, and miss you already.

“ Damn this is hard! Deb Deb you were the reason i picked up my first controller and help foster a passion that has stayed with me all through my life you were always so full of life and i can still hear your laugh. even when things weren't great you had such a joy in you and a light that shone so bright you were always smiling even when papaw would piss you off. i love you and will forever miss you and i hope that you can rest easy now and enjoy all the slingo your wrist can handle now that you don't need those braces on your hands. you were loved by so many and will be missed by us all i just hope you watch over us and help guide us from up in heaven.
