“Delmon and Verna were our neighbors for 30 years, and we loved them both very much. What I speak of Delmon I speak of his late wife Verna, as well. He was one of the nicest, most friendly, and helpful neighbors anyone could hope to have.

I have memories of Delman bringing over zucchini from his garden, some of the largest zucchini I've ever seen, he was an excellent gardener. He and Verna had the most beautiful yard filled with flowers of every kind and color.

I have memories of him and Verna sitting on the front porch, always ready to talk and share a laugh but of the memories I have, I'd have to say the one that touched my heart the most was his, and my neighbor next door, Charles Waelde's, care for my family. My husband passed away 21 years ago, he had a heart attack and died while we were working in the front yard. When I got home from the hospital that day I saw that Delmon and Charles had cut my front and back yards. You don't forget this kind of kindness.

Everything about Delmon was honest and respectful, a gentleman who cared for others. I loved looking across the street and seeing the flag on his porch that continued to show his love for this country. He was a wonderful human being, it's just who he was, and there are far too few people like him in the world today. He is home with his heavenly Father and his loving wife, Verna. Whom we will miss down here, heaven is rejoicing over. God bless you Robin, Sharon, and all of your family. May He hold you close to His heart and fill you with His peace that passes all understanding.

Love, and prayers,

Cherie and Pamela
