

Delores Ann Eisenbeis

March 28, 1936 - December 26, 2024

Delores Ann Eisenbeis passed away December 26, 2024, in Owensboro, Kentucky. She was born March 28, 1936, in Louisville Kentucky, the youngest daughter of Francis Andrew Eisenbeis and Edna Anastasia Kuriger.

A lifelong resident of Louisville, she worked various places in Louisville as a secretary/bookkeeper, among them, Conner Sheet Metal, Kroger & Company, Hillerich & Bradsby and retired from Frost Brown Todd LLC on December 31, 2007.

An ardent researcher of genealogy, she was the recording secretary of The Louisville Genealogical Society and was honored by receiving their award of appreciation on December 14, 2010.

She was a proud supporter of University of Kentucky basketball and once had the pleasure of meeting Tubby Smith and the team.

A lifelong dog lover, she was usually seen walking her furry friend around the neighborhood.

Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by her sisters, Anna Laverne (Vernie) Walsh and Mary Catherine (Cassie) Gant, and three nephews, William Francis Walsh, Michael

Lynn Walsh and James

Ronald Gant. She is survived by her nephews, Robert L. Gant and Gary L. Gant, and several great nephews and nieces along with numerous cousins.

The family ask that in leu of flowers expressions of sympathy be made to either Saint Jude Children's Research Hospital or The Wounded Warrior Project.

There is no visitation. Graveside services will be held Monday December 30, 2024, at 1:00 PM St. Michaels Cemetery at 1300 Ellison Avenue.

My last face-to-face time with Lori was a lunch get-together with some of the Ahrens "girls" - at Olive Garden. My heart breaks at this passing. Blessings to the family from Norfolk, VA from your friend since we were 7 years old and living on Hemlock Street. Sharyn Rice Leiding
