

Dennis Lindsey

March 4, 1967 - August 10, 2023

Dennis Lindsey, 56, of Louisville, passed away August 10, 2023, surrounded by his family at Baptist East Hospital. He was born in Fort Hood, TX. He was a son of Jim Lindsey, who survives and the late Mary Alice Lindsey.

In addition to his father, he is survived by his wife, Renee Lindsey; two daughters, Kirsten Haysley (Darrell) and Brea Lindsey; a brother, David Lindsey (Angie); two grandchildren, Olivia Whobrey and Tripp Whobrey; niece, Hunter Lindsey and nephew, River Lindsey.

Dennis was a graduate of the University of Kentucky and a tremendous Wildcat fan. He had a passion for Dale Hollow Lake where he spent most weekends with his wife, family and friends. He enjoyed hunting and fishing, especially out west. There he lived out his dream of being a real cowboy followed by his second dream of owning a Kentucky Derby winner.

Dennis never met a stranger, and he was always the life of the party. His stories were legendary and will live forever. Dennis had a collection of friends from various parts of his life that all became connected by their love of him. Dennis was the center of this group and loved nothing more than gathering them together.

Dennis lived for his family especially the love of his life, Renee and his pride and joy, Brea.

Even Churchill Downs loved Dennis. I took a picture of this post from CD in Oct 2019 while I was in Elgin AFB, and sent it to him.

“ Dennis lived as hard as anyone I've ever met, and he loved even harder. His laughter was infectious and if you were his friend you were never in need. We shared so many good times and memories that recalling them without him leaves me sad because no one else would believe them; how can you talk about Dennis without a smile?! My heart aches, and my prayers are with his beautiful family and multitude of friends, till Valhalla, Hoke Hay!

“ Great guy who was always fun to be around. He could entertain you for an entire evening. If you ever needed anything he would be there for you and always take your call. Successful in everything he did. Prayers for your family. Rest in Peace Dennis.

“ Thank you Dennis, for being a great friend to my brother. I spent more time with you in the stories Erik told than I ever got to in person, but they never failed to bring laughter. And the undercurrent was always a salt of the earth man who was and is incredibly loved. We have a saying - may his memory be eternal - and love and joy are eternal, so your memory will be too. God Speed and all my love to the love of your life Renee and your much loved kids and grandkids.
