“ I am so sorry for the loss of your beautiful daughter. I also loss my son Mark 3 years ago but I was blessed to have him longer. He was 42 and the first one to have a (mini)bmt in Boston. He was there on a mission to help. His time on earth had a lot of it spent on research. We both are so blessed to have been chosen to have them as our children. It hurts no less unfortunately. But you will eventually be able to smile more because the beautiful memories of things she did will always be there. My thoughts and love are with you now and forever.

“ My heart hurts for your family I know how much she was loved and how much she will be missed. All I know is God picked a beautiful angel to join him in Heaven. I know the pain is too much to bare right now just know you all still have tons of people praying for each and everyone of you, may God hold you all close and give comfort to you all.

“ Desteni was my second cousin. We didn't get to see each other that much, but we always stayed in touch. She was a sweet girl who made everyone laugh. She was very inspirational. I've had bad days and sat down and thought that why be sad over something silly when desteni's fighting for her life with a smile. She may not be with us physically but she is spiritually. I love her like a sister. She was always there. I'm gonna miss her FaceTime calls and text messages. God gained a beautiful and talented angel. I know she will be making everyone smile up there.
