“ DeWayne Indian Harris was a great neighbor and my husband Karl's good buddy in the neighborhood. To his widow Vicky, honey you have our deepest sympathy. Knock on the door if you need anything.

“ The first memory of DeWayne is playing in the sand box with our toys. All us in the neighborhood called him Dee. We had many Halloweens, riding our bikes , shot guns, worked on our cars together, We had many adventures through the years. We spent many summers going to "teen night" on thr Belle of Louisville. I could go on and on with the many memories, we have shared through the years. He was like a brother, but was truely a best friend. He will be sadly missed.

“ I met Dewayne at my first Shoemaker Christmas. I loved that he was wearing bells on his shoes & his laugh has always been contagious. I think he just had a way of making everyone feel comfortable and was so much fun to be around. I consider it an honor to be able to call someone as great as Dewayne family. He will definitely be missed.

“ The first time I met dewayne he did his best to have me accept him which I did right away without him knowing but the end of the night he acted like he wasn't going to do what I asked then without saying anything about it he ripped a massive donut in his Gran Torino in the middle of my court which had me smiling ear to ear fell in love with him at that moment
