

Donald Allen "Don" Cameron

May 18, 2016

Donald Allen "Don" Cameron 61, passed away Wednesday, May 18, 2016. Born in Louisville, he worked at UPS and was a musician who played with several bands, the Jamie Moody Band and previously with Munch. He was a Baptist who attended Walnut Street Baptist Church. He was preceded in death by his parents, Ralph Irwin and Mary Jo (Ginn) Cameron. He is survived by his daughter, Fortuna Rose Cameron; brothers, Greg Cameron (Bettina) and Steve Cameron (Carol); step-mother, Dorothy Cameron; step-brother, Steve Tipton (Carol); his sister, Lisa Lewis and his long standing girlfriend, Laura O'Leary. He is also survived by his grandson, Chance Musinski; numerous aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews. His funeral will be 2 p.m. Friday May 20, 2016 at Owen Funeral Home 5317 Dixie Highway, with burial at Odd Fellows Cemetery Bedford KY. Visitation will be from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., service time on Friday.

Tribute Wall

FO

“ I miss you dad. I hope you and mom are having fun together again. I miss you both so much it hurts. The world became a lot lonelier the days you both left me and I'll never be the same.

Fortuna - October 13, 2025 at 01:16 PM

SS

“ Chris Michele Sydney and Shailey are thinking about you and you are in our prayers I love u rosey

Shailey Swanson - June 28, 2018 at 03:57 PM