

Donald Ray "J.R." Sego, Jr.

October 30, 2012

Donald Ray ("J.R.") Sego, Jr., passed away at home in the morning of Oct. 30, 2012. Don struggled with complications of Type 1 Diabetes for nearly all of life. He is finally resting peacefully. He enjoyed working with children, camping, fishing and spending time with his friends, including Jennifer McAnally and her children. Don is survived by parents Donald R. and L. Joyce Sego, adopted and foster children Justus Sego, Chris Godby and Charles Mills, grandson Zachary Mills, sister Trina Sego and her husband Shikhar Sarin, brother Christopher Sego and his wife Rebecca Sego, and grandmother Ersie Sanders, along with four nieces, many aunts, uncles and cousins. He was preceded in death by brother Timothy Sego, grandfather Herbert Sanders, and grandparents Lawrence and Gladys Sego. Services will be held at 11a.m. Saturday, Nov. 3, at Owen Funeral Home, 5317 Dixie Highway, Louisville, KY. Visitation will be held 11a.m.-8p.m. Friday, Nov. 2. Memorial contributions can be made in the form of an Honor Donation in Don's name to the American Diabetes Association.

“ We are thinking of all of you & praying for you. Praying that God will give you peace & and the wisdom for the decisions that you will have in the next days, weeks and months. We have a lot of good memories of times spent with Junior and you guys. Lots of pictures. I remember the little bunnies he & his boys brought to our first reunion here in Arkansas. I know this is probably the hardest time you all have ever experienced but I know you have a lot of good memories. We love you, Darrell & Coneta

“ Our hearts go out to Joyce & Don at this time of sorrow. It is very painful to lose a sibling & we send our sympathy to all, too. He was so involved with people and family. The hole will not be filled. We wish we could come to the funeral, but we are too far & not able to be there. We would like to give each a hug.
