“ Dora was such a sweet and kind lady to me and my family. She is My first cousin. My mom and her mom were sisters. I have missed seeing her of late. I love her and she will be missed. May God give peace and comfort to all our family and friends who knew and loved her. She will be missed dearly.

“ My dear Mother in law. She meant so much to me! She and I would get up early on Saturdays every summer and go to yard sales. We shopped and had so much fun together. Her memory of it, and me, faded with that horrible dementia, but the last time I spent time with her, I told her everything about our adventures, what she taught me, and how much she meant to me. She is now whole, and I hope she remembers now what I said. Rest in the sweet peace of Jesus, Mom, and I'll see you when I get up there!
Love,

“ Miss Dora was a wonderful Christian woman who was a Blessing to everyone, I remember on a visit back to North Carolina, She and Joe White her son-in-law came over to visit us, We sit on a picnic table and I got my guitar out, And I started playing old hymns that I grew up with, And Miss Dora even though her mind had been affected by Alzheimer's, She sang with me word for word all those dear hymns that was still in her heart. I know without a doubt she is with the lord and Winston.

“ I would like to express my condolences to to Dora’s family. I loved her and we sure had some great times together. She and Winston were very good friends of my mom and dad. They had all been friends since they were young. Dora and I had such great laughs in my beauty shop. I had done her hair for a short time. She will always remain a very special lady in my thoughts. Prayers.

“ Proverbs 31:10-31

Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands. She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar. She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens. She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard. She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms. She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night. She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff. She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy. She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet. She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple. Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land. She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant. Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come. She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her. Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all. Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

May God Keep You In His Everlasting Care.
