“ I came to know Doris by phone as a customer of CFB in the mid-1970's. In 1980 I came to work for CFB in the ACS dept that Doris supported. Doris WAS ACS and CFB to banks and bankers across the state. When we conducted in-house seminars for training, it was crucial to have Doris in attendance, because she was the known voice, and everyone appreciated her tenacity to "fix" whatever problem they were encountering. She was a true jewel, reliable, smart and a real talent.
I have nothing but fond memories, and a deep appreciation for the effort she gave.

With deepest condolences,

Keith Perry
