“ As a fellow member of Southwest Louisville Quilters Guild, I will miss Dorie. She was a pretty lady, inside and out. I have vivid memories of her enthusiasm, liveliness, and passion for jewelry making and quilting. She shared with me many photos of her family and was so proud of them. I still have the group photo on display in my quilt room from our 2017 trip to Paducah. My thoughts and prayers are with her family.

I also was in her quilt guild. She was a pleasure to know. I remember this trip very well. Been missing her since covid came. We had a great time. I know she is in paradise. She was very proud of her family . I'm sending prayers to her family.

“ My prayers for the family as we say goodbye to a wonderful loving woman. "Dorie" was a member of the Southwest Louisville Quilters. She loved showing us her quilts, to share tutorials and patterns. She shared her love for making jewelry. My treasured memory is a trip to the Paducah quilt show, she shared her love for her family with so many stories. I will miss her and will always be blessed she was a part of our quilting family.
