“ Dear Sherman:

I am so sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I always enjoyed sitting next to Dot at our "Friday night" dinners, it was a pleasure to talk with her, she had so many interesting stories to tell. I know you will miss her and so will we.

Sincerely,

“ My thoughts are with Sherman and the entire Klein family in your loss of your wife, mother and grandmother. Dot was a special person and I will personally miss her warm smile. We can be assured that she is waiting for us in heaven, basking in the light of her Saviour and the love of His Blessed Mother. May our Lord and His Mother comfort you at this time of temporary separation until we all are united in God's presence.
