“ I am sorry, i pray still for you all. Everytime i saw him it made me smile to see such a good young man. I didn't know him too well, but he was someone who knew how to light up the darkest of days. <3

“ The young man will be missed greatly, he was a friend, a peer, and an excellent musician. We played in orchestra together for years amongst other classes and activities. Was a well rounded and known young man he could brighten anyone's day esp with his jokes, he had an abundance of them. Rest in peace, you'll forever be missed and God bless to his family.

“ My heart is so heavy for you sweetheart. My prayers for you and your family. Dylan was a wonderful young man. No parent should have to endure this pain. I remember sitting in your shop and helping him with his homework while I was waiting my turn. You are a wonderful mother and I know your are hurting. I am here for you for anything you need! I love you Sherri.
