“Uncle Eddie being your only niece, I must say I was spoiled just a little, I have so many great memories of you as I was growing up that no one can ever take away from me. I love you so much and you will be missed by so many of us that love you. I know your in a better place now with Papaw & Granny and your big Sister my sweet Momma and Daddy and so many other family members we have lost. “Nothing you love is lost. Not really. Things, people—they always go away sooner or later. You can't hold them anymore than you can hold a butterfly. But if they've touched you, if they're inside you, then they're still yours. The only things you ever really have are the ones you hold inside your heart.” I am truly saddened to have lost a decent man that searched for rightfulness through my son. Ed we will cast that rod one day but for now I am indebted to fulfilling your wish in raising your grandson-that I WILL!
