“ He was the epitome of a good man. He was the best uncle a girl could ask for and was the perfect example of what a good husband and father should be. I watched throughout the years as he worked to support his family and provided for them with love and kindness. While God gained an angel, the world lost a wonderful man. He touched the lives of all who knew him.

I worked with Ed as an apprentice in Bldg 2 and he was a super floor man and toolmaker.
One odd habit Eddie had was as we waited for time to clock out he would suddenly stop reading and check all the locks on his cabinets and toolbox to make sure they were locked-several times 😊

Kathy, so sorry for your loss. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Miss you.
