“ Eddie my thoughts and prayers are with your family at this time and my memories are of our neighborly conversations and the mechanical work you ask me to help you with over the years. You are and have been great neighbors. When you meet your maker put a good word in for me. Rest in comfort and peace my friend. God bless you and your family.

“ You were the lion
I was the wind
You were fearless
I moved with caution
You were relentless
I suffered a thousand cuts

The same seed and womb
We came forth to be
You under the star of Argead
Me, the quicksilver of Mercury

You taught me to tie my shoes
You waited on me when I was tired
You made me wash my hands
To rinse my mouth and wash my face
To comb my hair

You let me cry when I need to
But admonished me to be stronger
You hit hard
Wanting me to be tougher

The day came when you sensed my power
And we became closer as friends
But never did I challenge your skill
For I knew your power and how
You fought my battles
Forever grateful, I am

You gave forgiveness where I could not
You laughed and called it silliness
As I fell deeper inside myself

You could like others easily
And they would like you

*I watched you befriend complete strangers
And I couldn't say a word
I had fallen too deep inside myself*

*You were real and unpretentious
I was always on my guard
You were relaxed and easy to be around
I was always too tense and on edge*

*From the same seed and womb
We came forth to be
You under the star of Argead
Me, the quicksilver of Mercury*

*You were and will always be my hero
My surrogate father you were to me
My eyes are now swollen and ache
My heart is torn like a cloth
I see your life flash before me and
I cannot bear to see you
In your state of sleep*

*You are the lion
Sleep well courageous heart
If it is God's will we shall Meet again.*

*Love, your brother
John*
