

Edward L. McNicol

April 3, 1952 - November 8, 2025

Edward Levette McNicol, 73, of Louisville, Kentucky, passed away on November 8, 2025, surrounded by his loving family. He was born on April 3, 1952, in Flushing, New York, to Kenneth Robert and Mary K. McNicol. Edward was a talented musician who played with The Weads, The McNicol Brothers and The Rugbys. He also found joy in playing golf and was an avid U of L fan, but above all, he cherished his family and always put them first. He was preceded in death by his parents; his brothers, Kenneth Robert Jr., James Campbell, and Stephan William; and his stepfather, Gene Bobzien. Edward is survived by his loving wife, Andrea; his son, Johnny; his brother, Robert; and his nieces and nephews, Elisabeth, Katherine, Jeffrey, Michael, and Billy. Visitation will be held on Friday, November 14, 2025, from 4:00 PM to 8:00 PM at Owen Funeral Home – Jeffersontown, 9318 Taylorsville Road. A private Inurnment will take place later at Calvary Cemetery. In Lieu of flowers donations can be made to the WHAS Crusade for Children.

“ Eddie was a brother to me in the late 60's. Always a thoughtful and giving soul. He was a rare bright spot in a dark time. Also introduced me to guitar. Lost touch after H S where the road forked. Caught a few gigs by Weads & McNicol Brothers. Always admired Eddie. Peace to family and friends, and Peace to you, my brother. Your music and kindness live on with me.

“ On behalf of the WHAS Crusade for Children, we are deeply sorry for your loss. It is people like Edward who have made it possible for the Crusade to help children with healthcare, educational, and emotional wellness needs for over 70 years. Thank you for honoring his memory by remembering the WHAS Crusade for Children. Edward's legacy will live on for years to come through the lives of children who are helped by the Crusade. We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.
