

Elnore Kerr Robinson

February 8, 1930 - March 28, 2021

Elnore Kerr Robinson was born February 8, 1930, in Edmonson County, the eldest of the two daughters of Marion F. and Pernie L. Hughes Kerr. She passed peacefully at home on March 28th, 2021.

During a revival at Union Light Missionary Baptist Church that Brothers Johnnie Jones and Andrew Hester were holding, she was saved. She told of the time when she saw her mother coming down the aisle toward her, she knew at that moment she was lost. She made her way to the altar, and while the song "I Feel Like Traveling On" was being sung, the Lord blessed and saved her. Brother Andrew Hester baptized her, and she joined Union Light Missionary Baptist Church.

Soon after the family moved to Louisville, and in July 1955 she moved her membership to First United Baptist Church (Longfield) and remained a member until her death.

On June 8, 1947, she married William Robinson, Jr., and to this union were born a daughter, Glenda Faye, and a son, William Wayne (Billy). Her friends and family will always remember her as a faithful wife, loving mother and devoted friend. She loved spending time in the garden, was an exceptional bowler, traveled across the world and was a devout member of the Eastern Star. Her memory will be cherished by all whose lives she touched.

She leaves behind her daughter, Glenda Faye Riggs; great-grandson Brent Lee Durbin (Kayla); one niece and one nephew.
