

Ena Margarita Sanchez

December 2, 1970 - March 10, 2021

Ena Margarita Sanchez, 50, of Louisville, passed away Wednesday, March 10, 2021.

She is now in heaven with her mom, Barbara Diaz; sister, Barbara Sanchez; grandmother, Carmen Cambolor; and grandfather, Victor Diaz.

Ena is survived by her wife of 26 years, Paola Gutierrez; brother, Josh Diaz; father-in-law and mother-in-law, Caroll & Nora Gutierrez; her fur babies, Lily, Rocky, Lulu, Bella and Ruby.

She was an amazing and strong woman, wife and friend. She was loved by so many and will be missed by the many who loved her.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

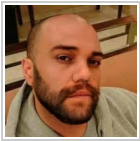

Tribute Wall

YD

“ Remembering you on your birthday.
Miss you!
Y

Yvette DelGuidice - December 03, 2024 at 02:38 AM

“ Joshua Diaz lit a candle in memory of Ena
Margarita Sanchez

Joshua Diaz - August 27, 2022 at 11:31 AM

JY

“ Wow what can I say Ena we loved you you were my cousin and an amazing human being. I met Ena when I was 6 or 7 years old. I have memories of you and Ena babysitting us and always making us laugh. There was never a dull moment with Ena she always found a way to put a smile on your face especially when things were bad. I'll never forget hearing her sing what she called her anthem song a Christian song called Nobody but Jesus. We love you Ena always and forever

Joana Yanes - March 15, 2021 at 10:35 AM

RB

“ I remember first meeting Ena. She never knew a stranger and was always positive and loving toward everyone she met. Paola, you and Ena were sisters for life from the start. Her love for you was a special kind of love that endures. Ena is frolicking and infecting everyone in heaven with her humor and unselfish soul. I'm here for you Paola. She'll be waiting for you at heavens door when God calls you home. Love you. ❤️😊🎈

Regina Bratcher - March 12, 2021 at 12:46 PM

TK

“ I'm sorry Ena that we never got to take that trip to see the Reds in the jeep with the top off.
For those who knew you, your spirit was infectious and I am blessed to have you crossed my path.
Tk

Tammy Klette - March 11, 2021 at 11:03 PM

TE

“ She has a special place in our hearts - loved her visits to see our fur babies at our stay in Extended Stay. She always brought humor and love whenever we saw her. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her. Paulo, you are in our thoughts and prayers. Richard and Teresa Limke

Teresa - March 11, 2021 at 08:41 PM

PS

“ Ena was one of the kindest and loving people I have ever met. She was always at your service if you needed help in any way. Her humor was infectious. I am just so sad to hear about this, but I know she is probably talking God’s ear off already.

Peggy Schmidt - March 11, 2021 at 08:34 PM

DB

“ Debora Burke lit a candle in memory of Ena Margarita Sanchez

Debora Burke - March 11, 2021 at 07:14 PM

DB

“ Ena was the best! There was never a dull moment with Ena, and she brought the sunshine into every place she went. She remembered even the smallest of details, and was quick-witted, smart, and fiercely loyal!
Ena loved Paola unconditionally and was a proud, supportive, and understanding wife. Love is eternal. Our hearts are broken from the devastating loss of our true and loving friend, Ena. Keeping Paola, Josh, and their family in our prayers. Rest In Peace, dear Ena. There are not enough words to describe how much you are already missed.

Debora, Tom, and Sarah

Debora Burke - March 11, 2021 at 07:07 PM

Ena, I sought you out for so many years but to no avail. I sought one more time and found your obituary online. Baby girl I don't know what happened, why you are no longer here. But I'm so sorry, sorry for lost time, sorry for things not said, sorry for everything. You were an amazing friend, one which I will hold very near my heart till my last breath. I love you and I always will. You were kind and sweet and funny and humorous and always will and able. Baby girl please forgive me. Sweet soul God keep you sweet angel. ❤️🌹😊

Yvette Coutin - September 23, 2021 at 06:24 PM