“ So very sorry for the passing of Ernie. He was always such a delight just to be around. His thoughts during Bible study were always so insightful and it was so obvious always how much he loved his family and people in general. He was a true man of God and he reflected the love of Jesus all the time. May our Lord comfort you all.

“ Frank and I are in Florida and will not be able to attend the funeral but we will be with you in spirit. Ernie and I developed a friendship when we were children and stayed friends even though we rarely saw each other. I have the greatest respect and love for Ernie and Roberta. They are cousins but more importantly, they are friends. Sending love and prayers to you, Greg, Roberta and family.
