“It's been our pleasure to have been neighbors with the Simmons for many years. We will truly miss those back yard, "over-the-fence" talks with Mr. Simmons. He was a down-home, good soul..a gentle spirit, quick with a giggle and a warm smile. We will miss him a lot and cherish the time we had with him. May he rest in peace and in the hearts of those who loved him and God bless his family in this time of grief.

“When I think of my uncle, I realize what an amazing man he was. He strived to be everything he could be and should be. The first time I gave him serious thought was when I entered their home and he was studying. I thought that was remarkable, so many give up on education, jobs, people and even themselves, but not Ernest. I have always respected and admired his love and commitment to his wife, Ola. They doted on one another and did not care what others thought. That kind of everlasting love and romance is rare these days. I am comforted to know that he is singing in Gloryland today! My prayers are with you all; praying that God will give you the strength and peace to say goodbye, and the joy in knowing that because of the blood of our saviour, Jesus, it is only a temporary separation.
