“ *Mark and David, my sincere condolences for the loss of your Dad. He (and you) were always so helpful when I used your services when I lived in the Highlands. Gene was also a very interesting fellow to chat with. I also remember with so much appreciation how much your Dad helped my son, Joe, when he had car troubles in California!! I wish you joy with the memories you have of your Dad. Sincerely, “ Susie my prayers and love go out to you today.

Now that Bashford Mall has gone we will have to find another place to walk. I will never forget how much you helped me in my time of grieving. If I can help in any way please let me know.
