“ Frank was an amazingly compassionate person and truly good human being. Through some very dark times in my life, his communications cheered me and reminded me to appreciate the small gifts in life and the beauty of the world.

I so appreciated his condolences at the death of my parents, and his consistent efforts to stay in touch and connect us all.

I am saddened that I did not adequately convey my high regard for him and good feelings about him while he was still alive. So, thanks, Frank. You will be missed by those near and far.

“ Frank was a good friend to me, my horses, Barry, Bubba and Star, my cat Big, my dogs Chester, PupDog, YellowDog, Belle and Joseph. He loved us all dearly and showed it daily through his steadfast communications over the last 24 years. He will be sorely missed but Chester, for one, is glad to welcome him to heaven and is now sitting pressed against his side. Goodbye Frank - I can hardly imagine the world without you.
