“ One Christmas Eve when we were very young, Fred, Billie and I spent the night at Allen Junior's house. The four of us perched up on the same bed like 4 peas in a pod. Fred, deciding to have some fun, said, "Oh, did you hear that?" And we all said, breathlessly, what? Fred said, "It sounds like hooves tapping on the roof. Maybe it's Santa and his reindeer." I wasn't entirely sure, but Billie and Allen totally bought in and were very excited. The next morning, Fred smiled at me as if to say "Let them think it was really Santa on the roof." I have so many wonderful memories, but I will say goodbye for now "Freddie" and I'll see you on the other side.

With affection and love,
Carole Sue

“ He will always be "Freddie" to my sister and me. He and Carole were the Two Musketeers with me tagging along as the pesky third musketeer. They were 3 years older than me. Too many wonderful childhood memories to list, but I will mention that one time Carole snuck it away and ate Aunt Willie's doughnut and then blamed it on Freddie. Good times! Anyway, Freddie was the kindest, gentlest soul I've ever known, and I'm so, so glad we had those good times so many years ago. (Catherine, our mother, was Aunt Ella's sister.)

“ Fred was our Bon Air Subdivision “paper boy“ in the early sixties. When he came to our door driving that beautiful black Starliner to collect payment for the newspaper, our household of girls would giggle and run to the door to see the cute paperboy! He became my brother-in-law for a time and became the father of my favorite niece and nephew. We remained friends and family and he married the love of his life Mary, giving us two more nieces and a nephew. My love and sympathy go out to all of them. We will miss you, Fred.

Going to miss you "Freddy" not 'Fred for 54 years'!!!!. I first met him when I started as an "Route Salesman" at the old "Gordon's Potato Company" on Algonquin Parkway. Sure in the 27 years I worked there, sure we had our 'differences', but that was no big deal, I knew we were good friends and nothing ever came out of it, it was resolved in a short time. After leaving Gordon's in 1993, we still kept in touch with one another until a few weeks ago right before getting sick. When talking on the phone a lot, we always talked about the "Old Times" and especially softball together. Yes I knew Freddy was an good "Christian" also very dedicated to Mary for 47 years, especially his family, they always came first to him, always!!!!. Well Freddy, just like all of your family will miss you, me too. My Condolence to Mary and all of his great family.. Well, Old Buddy and Great Friend!!!!. RIP!!!. I will miss you. Don.
