

Garvin Lee Fehler

December 12, 1936 - August 30, 2023

Garvin Lee Fehler, 86 of Louisville passed away Wednesday, August 30, 2023.

Garvin was born December 12, 1936 here in Louisville, Kentucky to his late parents Billie and William Fehler. He retired from Philip Morris Tobacco Company as a forklift driver.

Survivors include his wife Mary (Link Fehler; two daughters, Margaret and Sharon and two grandchildren.

There will be a celebration of his life to be announced at a later time.

The Owen Funeral Home 5317 Dixie Highway is handling his arrangements.

Cemetery Details

Cremation was chosen

Events

Details are pending.

Tribute Wall

DT

“ He was my softball coach at St.Athanasius...a patient, gentle, supportive, kind man....loved playing for him. A class act.

Denise Hardy Twyman - July 08, 2025 at 09:48 PM

JN

“ He will be missed! What a great coach! Played against him many years on Stokers vs Bells
Love him! Many fond childhood memories! RIP love Nute!

Jaime Noble - January 09, 2024 at 07:05 PM

AD

“ Gosh, so many memories! He loved coaching and watched a lot of us grow up into adulthood. He was so dedicated, using his overtime pay for fees etc. we rarely had to pay for anything. Lots of crazy stories could be told, good and bad, lol. Always a gentleman to me and friend for life! RIP!

Alice Nickens Dant - September 09, 2023 at 04:01 PM

SC

“ Had many great tournaments and weekends playing for him. He was always a great guy to me and my husband. RIP
Junie and Stephanie cline

stephanie cline - September 05, 2023 at 03:52 PM

CF

“ Such good times on the ball fields. Always treated the girls with respect chuck fischer - September 03, 2023 at 11:27 AM

GS

*Garvin a good friend we ushered hundreds of UK games together
Rest In Peace*

Grover Sales - September 05, 2023 at 02:39 PM