“ While I know his sisters well (most of them), my primary encounter with Gayle was an expression of his tremendous generosity. It was touching. I shall not forget it. My prayers are truly with his family at this time. I know your hearts are heavy. Now you will just have a larger welcoming when you get to go home to your heavenly Father. It's good to know that Gayle is free and whole now. Mary Patton

“ *Gayle was such a wonderful man I was fortunate enough to be around Gayle only twice once in Kentucky and once at a golf outing in Myrtle Beach . He was the kind of person that you meet and feel as you have known him all your life. I prayed for him every day and now I can know prayers are answered because no more suffering no more pain. Paradise has gained a great lamb of God . Thank God for knowing him and GodBless the family
