“ To the family. I believe I know this family as I used to live next door to his parents on "M" Street in the South end of Louisville (if I have the correct family). We sat on our porch swing and we chatted with Edith Becker many many times. I was in my early 20's and living with my Mom, Sally Murphy. What a wonderful neighbors they were and so interesting to talk to. We'd sit and gossip about everything and talk about the news. Your husband and father looks a lot like George Becker Sr. I remember seeing family come to visit them. What happy memories you must have made. Share what you know about George Jr with the young people in the family and may God Bless you through your difficult loss.
