“ She was Mom Bader to me. Both Jerry and her husband Bob opened their doors to me and two of my brothers when we were in high school. Together they corralled a group of us as teenagers to teach us to Round Dance. She made is feel like one big happy family. I will miss visiting with her when I make trips home to Louisville. May all of you find solace in the many memories of what a wonderful woman she was.

“ Jerry and I were friends for 70 years. We lived on the same street, went to the same school, doubled at our prom, and went to many parties together. As we had our children, we still got together playing Bunco and exchanging stories about our lives. She made beautiful ceramics. The last time I visited her at the nursing home, she was so ecstatic about her first great granddaughter. I miss you Jerry, but we will get together again in heaven.
