

Gerry Lee Blair

March 4, 1953 - July 14, 2025

Gerry Lee Blair, 72, passed away in his home with family by his side on July 14, 2025. He was born in Louisville, Kentucky, on March 4, 1953, to Cora and Joseph Blair, his late parents.

Gerry was an avid outdoorsman who enjoyed hunting and fishing. He was a retired union sheet metal fabricator and installer, a lover of all animals, a University of Kentucky fan, and loved nothing more than being on a golf course. Above all, he was a loving son, brother, uncle, and friend.

He is preceded in death by his parents, his brother, Wayne Blair, his nephew, Frank Miller Jr., and his beloved dog, Bandit.

He is lovingly remembered by his brothers, Doug and Terry Blair (Denise); his sister, Phyllis Miller; nieces, Nikki Dyer (James) and Kelly Miller (Jake); nephews, Zack Blair and Greg Blair (Linda); and his cats, Pepper, Momma, and Chip.

Cemetery Details

Cremation was chosen

Tribute Wall

DM

“ Gerry was like a brother to me we spent a lot of time fishing and hunting with my dad rabbit he will be missed.

Danny and melissa - July 28, 2025 at 08:57 PM

JS

“ Very good friend

Jessica spadie - July 20, 2025 at 09:29 PM