“ The first thing that I thought when I heard of Gerry's passing was how very proud their parents, Kenny and Carolyn, would have been to see how Joe, John, and Leila showered Gerry with love and protection these past years. We who have been priviledged to be part of the family got to experience Gerry's love and innocence. I hope some of it rubbed off on each of us. We loved her dearly. We will miss her and her many dolls and her many watches. I can picture her now dancing in heaven.

“ One of my fondest memories of Gerry is what she liked to call me. I am one of Gerry's first cousins and we grew up together, but once I became a doctor, she liked to refer to me as Doctor, Doctor! We all laughed about that so many times over the years. Stuart
